Subject: Caribbean Court of Justice Decision

Dear All:

I am writing to thank you again for the time you took to meet on April 10th with Dr. Bharrat Jagdeo, former President of Guyana and current leader in the National Assembly of Guyana's People's Progressive Party, to discuss the Government of Guyana's refusal to hold elections following a no confidence motion as required under Guyana's Constitution. A majority of the National Assembly adopted such a motion on December 21, 2018, triggering Section 106(6) of the Constitution, which requires Presidential elections within 90 days, or March 21st of this year.

You may recall that the Government of Guyana challenged the validity of the no confidence resolution and that the Caribbean Court of Justice has been in the process of making a final determination.

Please note that we now expect the decision to be announced tomorrow, June 18th. We will be in touch soon.

Best regards,
Joe
